

Karen Jones

Barrister

Karen has been in the legal profession for over 25 years. Her background in criminal law has been both as a prosecutor and defence barrister. She has specialised in the areas of child abuse, medical/ legal law, DNA, firearms and sexual assault cases.

Bar Admission

Law Society of Upper Canada,
Ontario
New York Bar
Bar Council of England and Wales

Practice Areas

Criminal
Medical-Legal

Education

BSc - Queen's University
BA - Laurentian University
M Mus - McGill University
LLB - Ottawa University

Languages

English
French
Dutch

Professional Experience

Counsel for the Department of Justice in the prison and health departments.

Piloted a new Criminal Law Office for Legal Aid, practiced as the first counsel to the Canadian DNA court and as Senior Commission Counsel for a Public Inquiry investigating institutional response to historical child abuse claims.

Dual qualified as a Barrister in Canada and England & Wales.

Training Experience

Bond Solon trainer since 1998.

Delivers Witness Familiarisation to factual, professional and expert witnesses.

Trains civil and criminal investigators throughout the UK and Ireland.

Delivered Witness Familiarisation internationally for witnesses in North America, the Middle East, Europe and the Caribbean.

Prepares Witnesses on Behalf of Addleshaw Goddard, Arthur Cox, BDB Pitmans, Burges Salmon, Clifford Chance, Clyde & Co, CMS, Dechert, Dentons, DLA Piper, Enyo Law, Eversheds, Farrer & Co, Fenwick Elliott, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Gibson Dunn, Hogan Lovells, Holman Fenwick Willan, Ince, Kennedys, King & Spalding, Macfarlanes, Miles Preston & Co, Mills & Reeve, Pinsent Masons, Saunders & Co, Shakespeare Martineau, Simmons & Simmons, Slater and Gordon, Stevens & Bolton, Womble Bond Dickinson and others.

Legal Hearings

Prepares witnesses for Civil Court, Criminal Court, Coroner's Court, Tribunals, and Public Inquiries.